Warning – Assumption of Risk

There are many special benefits from the activity being offered to student-athletes by the volleyball program at Navarro College. Within the activities it will be understood that there are dangers that lead to injury to student-athletes. Therefore the purpose of this section is to make all student-athletes aware that dangers do exist and that participation is voluntary with the understanding that risks are involved. It is to be further understood that student-athletes must share in this responsibility of their own safety and the safety of others as each participates in the volleyball camp at Navarro College.

The student-athlete participating in the volleyball camp at Navarro College could injure the anatomy of one or several of the following: musculo-skeletal system, nervous system, circulatory system, respiratory system, digestive system, urinary system, reproductive system, endocrine and skin. Catastrophic injuries such as death, permanent paralysis and loss of organs may occur during sport participation. There is not an absolute preventative against any injury. Navarro College does not offer supplemental insurance to participate in the basketball tryout at Navarro College. Any injury sustained by the student-athlete will be resolved by their own means.

By signing below, you acknowledge that you have read the "Warning-Assumption of Risk: statement above and are aware that there is a possibility you may incur an injury of varying temporary or permanent disability to any of the body's systems. Also, you acknowledge risk of death, permanent paralysis, loss of organs and life-long disability that may occur as a result of the basketball tryout at Navarro College.
